Frontiers: Metaphors and Myths in the Writing of South Africa’s History

Tuesday, October 7, 2014
1:40 pm – 2:55 pm
Godwin-Ternbach Museum, Queens College

The first lecture in our Short Course on South Africa will feature Professor Hlonipha Mokoena of Columbia University and Professor Grace Davie of Queens College in a discussion of South African history. Their joint presentation will include reflections on the debates, myths, metaphors, and interpretive clashes that make South African history fascinating, troubling, and deeply unsettled.

For more information contact LarissaSwedell@gmail.com