20 Years for Democracy:
The Journey Traveled by Universities and Other Higher Education Institutions in South Africa

February 19, 2015 @ 4:00 pm - 6:00pm
The Flex Space, at the Summit | Queens College

Dr. Prins Nevhutalu, Vice Chancellor of the Cape Peninsula University of Technology, will talk about achievements and challenges experienced by South African universities and other institutions of higher education during the past 20 years of democracy, and what the future may hold.

Before the lecture, we will enjoy a vocal performance given by the Queens College Women’s Choir, conducted by Dr. Sandra Babb, with guest conductor H. Roz Woll. The Women’s Choir will perform in several of the languages spoken in South Africa, including Xhosa, Zulu and Afrikaans.

For more information contact helen.gaudette@qc.cuny.edu

http://southafrica.qc.cuny.edu
Sponsored by the Queens College Foundation; Queens College Office of the President; Queens College Office of the Provost